1. Introduction

The FinCEN XML Schema 2.0 User Guide outlines the business and validation rules to support the electronic batch transmission of the FinCEN Currency Transaction Report (FinCEN CTR). Electronic filing of this report will be through the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) E-Filing System operated by the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). BSA E-Filing users who intend to file the FinCEN CTR batch XML should be familiar with FinCEN regulations, Extensible Markup Language (XML) and the FinCEN XML schemas. For more information, please go to bsaefiling.fincen.treas.gov.

2. FinCEN CTR XML Schema Overview

Before you begin submitting your BSA data to FinCEN's BSA E-Filing System (bsaefiling.fincen.treas.gov) via XML batch, you must first review the required schemas to assist you with constructing and testing your XML batch file before submitted to FinCEN for processing. These schemas define the requirements by which the FinCEN CTR XML batch file must be constructed, such as which elements are required and which are optional, what are the appropriate values you may enter for certain elements, and what sequence the elements should appear in when building the batch. Please visit https://www.fincen.gov/sites/default/files/schema/base/EFL\_CTRXBatchSchema.xsd to access the FinCEN XML 2.0 batch schema file.

2.1. File Organization

This section describes the general formatting requirements for FinCEN CTR XML batch reporting. The diagram below provides a visual representation of the XML batch file layout from a high level perspective. Detailed element requirements can be found in Section 3 – FinCEN CTR XML Batch Reporting Requirements.

XML declaration (prolog)

The XML declaration specifies the XML version and character encoding used in the file. It must appear on the first line of the file.

EFilingBatchXML

This is the root element and serves as the container for all FinCEN CTR documents recorded in the batch. It must be the first element recorded in the file.

The EFilingBatchXML element is parent to the following complex element(s):

- Activity. This element is the container for each FinCEN CTR document in the batch. All BSA data related to a single FinCEN CTR document must be recorded within the <Activity> element. The number of <Activity> elements will depend on the number of FinCEN CTR documents being reported in the batch.

Activity

Each FinCEN CTR document in the batch must begin with the <Activity> element. It identifies all information related to a single FinCEN CTR, including (but not limited to) the transmitter, the reporting financial institution (i.e. filing institution), the transaction location(s), the person(s) involved in the transaction(s), and transaction details such as the cash-in/out amount(s), the filing date, etc. There is no limit to the number of <Activity> elements that may be recorded in the batch.

The <Activity> element is parent to the following complex element(s):

- ActivityAssociation. This element is the container for the type of filing (i.e. Initial report, Correct/amend prior report, or FinCEN directed Backfiling) for the FinCEN CTR.
- Party. This element is the container for any person (individual or entity) associated with the FinCEN CTR, such as the batch file transmitter, the reporting financial institution, the transaction location(s), and the person(s) involved in the transaction(s).
- CurrencyTransactionActivity. This element is the container for all details concerning the amount and type of transaction(s) associated with the FinCEN CTR.

ActivityAssociation

As the container for the type of filing declaration for the FinCEN CTR, this element identifies the FinCEN CTR as an Initial report, Correct/amend prior report, or FinCEN directed Backfiling. There must be one occurrence of this element for each <Activity> element in the batch.

Party

Each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch must include a separate Party element identifying the following persons. A maximum occurrence of 2002 total Party elements may be recorded for each FinCEN CTR activity in the batch:

Transmitter

This is the person (individual or entity) handling the data accumulation and formatting of the batch file. Each FinCEN CTR Activity element in the batch must include a Party element that identifies the batch transmitter. The batch transmitter should be identical for each FinCEN CTR. There must be only one occurrence of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch.

Transmitter Contact

This is the official contact for the transmitter. Each FinCEN CTR Activity element in the batch must include a Party element that identifies the point of contact for the batch transmitter. The transmitter contact should be identical for each FinCEN CTR. There must be only one occurrence of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch.

Reporting Financial Institution

This is the entity responsible for filing the FinCEN CTR, such as a reporting financial institution or a holding or other parent company filing for its subsidiaries. There must be only one occurrence of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch.

Contact for Assistance

This is the administrative office that should be contacted to obtain additional information about the FinCEN CTR. There must be only one occurrence of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch.

Transaction Location

This is the location (such as an office or ATM, for example) where the transaction(s) associated with the FinCEN CTR occurred. The location may be owned or operated by the reporting financial institution required to file the FinCEN CTR or by another financial institution involved in the transaction(s) through a shared branching or other contractual agreement. There must be at least one occurrence (not to exceed 999) of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch.

Person Involved in the Transaction(s)

This is the person (individual or entity) involved in the transaction(s) associated with the FinCEN CTR. There must be at least one occurrence (not to exceed 999) of this party for each FinCEN CTR Activity in the batch. Among the persons recorded for the FinCEN CTR, the following information must be recorded:

- The person on whose behalf the transaction is made. This person is either conducting the transaction on own behalf or on whose behalf the transaction is conducted.
- The person conducting the transaction or the reason why this person was not identified. This person is either conducting the transaction on own behalf, conducting the transaction for another, or a common carrier; or all transacting persons were unidentified because one or more of the following transaction circumstances were involved:
  - Armored car (FI contract)
  - ATM
  - Mail deposit or shipment
  - Night deposit
  - Aggregated transactions
  - Shared branching

CurrencyTransactionActivity

As the container for all details concerning the amount and type of transaction(s) for the FinCEN CTR, this element identifies information such as the transaction date, types of transactions, the total cash in and/or total cash out amounts for the FinCEN CTR, and information about any foreign currencies involved in the transaction(s) for the FinCEN CTR. This element must be recorded after the final Party element is recorded for the FinCEN CTR. There must only be one occurrence of this element for each FinCEN CTR activity in the batch.

3. FinCEN CTR XML Batch Reporting Requirements

This section describes in detail the reporting requirements for each element in the FinCEN CTR batch.

3.1. Element Definition Overview

Each element in this user guide is defined using the following terms:

Item	Description
Element Name	This is the name that must be used when recording the element.
minOccurs/maxOccurs	This defines the number of times the element can occur for the parent element. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>MinOccurs. The minimum number of times this element may be recorded for the parent element (e.g. minOccurs=0 means this element is only required under certain conditions while minOccurs=1 means at least one of the element must be recorded for the parent element in the FinCEN CTR.)</li> <li>MaxOccurs. The maximum number of times this element may be recorded for the parent element (e.g. maxOccurs=999 means this element can occur up to 999 times in the same FinCEN CTR.)</li> </ul>
Description	This is the summary description of the element. Also included in the description is a list of sub-elements associated with the element (if applicable) as well as any special requirements for when (and when not) to record the element.
Attribute(s)	This specifies the attribute(s) that are required to be recorded for the element. Note: Various elements contain the SeqNum attribute used to identify the associated element in the batch file. The value recorded for this attribute must be numeric and unique. It should begin with "1" and increase by 1 for all subsequent elements in the batch that contain this attribute.
Parent Element	This identifies the element's container element. The <Parent> element contains sub elements and is considered a complex element.
Element Restriction(s)	This specifies the requirement level for the element; specifically, under what conditions the element should be recorded: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Required. The element must be recorded for the &lt;Parent&gt; element; however, this does not necessarily mean that a value must also be recorded for the element.</li> <li>Conditionally Required means that the element should only be recorded when certain conditions apply (if the element is labeled as conditionally required, the conditions for recording the element are defined in the Remarks).</li> </ul> NOTE: If neither of the above requirement levels are specified in this field, then the element is not required. However, a field that is not required does not mean that it is optional. All fields require an entry when the filer has the relevant data.
Value Restriction(s)	This specifies any requirements and/or restrictions in terms of the value recorded for the element. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Required. A value must be recorded for the element.</li> <li>Conditionally Required. A value may or may not be recorded for the element depending on whether or not certain conditions apply.</li> </ul>
Remarks	This specifies any additional information about the element to assist with reporting; including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Reporting conditions that may result in a batch rejection.</li> <li>Reporting conditions that may result in a batch accepted with warnings.</li> </ul>

3.2. Batch Validation (Form & Fit) Overview

IMPORTANT: FinCEN strongly encourages that filers first test their XML batch files for schema compliance using the schemas available at www.fincen.gov/base. Your batch file should pass schema validation before you attempt to submit to FinCEN; otherwise, it will be at risk of being rejected.

It is important to note that if the batch file does not adhere to the basic format described in this guide in accordance with the CTR XML batch schema, then the batch will fail validation and will not be accepted by FinCEN.

Here is a list of general schema requirements that your batch must adhere to in addition to the data requirements described for each element throughout this guide:

- Elements must include the prefix "fc2".
- Element names must be spelled correctly and in the correct case.
- Elements must have a matching closing tag (which includes a self-closing tag in the event that no value is recorded for the element).
- Elements must be in the correct sequence.
- Elements must be recorded when the minOccurs=1 (or greater than 1).
- Elements must not be recorded more than the maxOccurs value for the associated <Parent> element.
- Element values must not exceed the maximum specified character limit.

3.3. Element Requirements

The following defines each element in the FinCEN CTR XML batch in the order in which they can be recorded.

XML declaration/prolog

The XML declaration must appear on the first line of the file.

Element Name:	?xml	minOccurs:	1	maxOccurs:	1
Description:	XML declaration/prolog. This is the XML declaration which specifies the XML version and character encoding used in the file.
Attribute(s):	version. The version number of the XML. The value recorded must be "1.0" encoding. The character encoding, which must be UTF-8, used for the XML. The value recorded must be "UTF-8"
Parent Element:	n/a
Element Restriction(s):	This declaration must be recorded.
Value Restriction(s):	The value provided must adhere to the following requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• &lt;?xml version="1.0" encoding="UTF-8"?&gt;</li> </ul>
Remarks:	The batch submission will be rejected if any of the following conditions are true: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The XML declaration/prolog is not recorded with the required values (see Value Restriction(s) above) or it is not recorded on the first line of the batch file.</li> </ul>
Example:	<?xml version="1.0" encoding="UTF-8"?>

EFilingBatchXML Elements

The <EFilingBatchXML> element is the container for the contents of the batch file, which may include one or more FinCEN CTR documents. It must be the first element recorded in the file (directly following the XML declaration/prolog) and is considered the root element. An <Activity> element must be recorded for each FinCEN CTR document within the EFilingBatchXML element. Once all FinCEN CTR <Activity> elements are recorded, the batch file must include a closing tag for the element (e.g. </EFilingBatchXML>) which should be the last line of data recorded in the file. There must only be one occurrence of this element in the file.

IMPORTANT: If the batch file does not conform to the above requirements, it will fail schema validation and the entire batch submission will be rejected by FinCEN.

Parent Element:	n/a
Element Restriction(s):	Required. This element must be recorded.
Value Restriction(s):	n/a
Remarks:	The batch submission will be rejected if any of the following conditions are true: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The element is not recorded or is incorrectly formatted.</li> <li>• One or more of the attributes are missing, incorrectly formatted, or contain an invalid value.</li> <li>• The reported count of the total number of &lt;Activity&gt; elements in the batch does not match the actual count.</li> <li>• The reported sum of the total amount (cash in + cash out) of &lt;DetailTransactionAmountText&gt; elements in the batch does not match the actual sum.</li> <li>• The reported count of the total number of Party elements in the batch does not match the actual count.</li> </ul>

Description:	Form type (code). This element identifies the type of form being reported in the batch.
Attribute(s):	n/a
Parent Element:	EfilingBatchXML
Element Restriction(s):	Required. This element must be recorded.
Value Restriction(s):	The value provided must equal: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• CTRX</li> </ul>

Example:	<fc2:FormTypeCode>CTR</fc2:FormTypeCode>

Activity Elements

The <Activity> element is the container for the FinCEN CTR document. The first <Activity> element in the batch file must directly follow the <FormTypeCode> element. Once all sub-elements related to the FinCEN CTR are recorded, the batch file must include a closing tag for the element (e.g. </Activity>) before any subsequent FinCEN CTR <Activity> elements are recorded. The <Parent> element <EFileBatchXML> element must contain at least 1 occurrence of this element. There is no maximum occurrence value set for this element; however, the total size of the batch file must not exceed 60MB.

IMPORTANT: If the batch file does not conform to the above requirements, it will fail schema validation and the entire batch submission will be rejected by FinCEN.

Element Name:	Activity	minOccurs:	1	maxOccurs:	unbounded
Description:	FinCEN CTR activity (header). This is the container for the FinCEN CTR document contents, which includes information about the transmitter, reporting financial institution, transaction location(s), person(s) involved in the transaction(s), and specific activity data related to the currency transaction report, such as the date of the transaction(s), the total cash-in/out amount(s), etc.  This element is parent to the following sub-elements: EFileBatchXML FilingDateText ActivityAssociation * Party * CurrencyTransactionActivity *  NOTE: The elements marked with an asterisk (*) in the table above contain sub-elements.

Once all sub-elements related to the <ActivityAssociation> element are recorded, the batch file must include a closing tag for the element (e.g. </ActivityAssociation>). There must be one occurrence of this element for each FinCEN CTR <Activity> element recorded in the batch.

Party Elements

The Party element is the container for information about the individual or organization associated with the FinCEN CTR. At a minimum, each FinCEN CTR `<Activity>` element must contain a separate Party element identifying each of the following party types: Transmitter (not to exceed one occurrence), Transmitter Official Contact (not to exceed one occurrence), Reporting Financial Institution (not to exceed one occurrence), Contact Office (not to exceed one occurrence), Transaction Location Business (not to exceed 999 occurrences), and Person Involved in Transaction(s) (not to exceed 999 occurrences) which can be either the person conducting the transaction on own behalf, the person conducting the transaction for another, the person on whose behalf the transaction is conducted, or a common carrier. The first Party element associated with the FinCEN CTR should directly follow the ActivityAssociation element closing tag (i.e. `</ActivityAssociation>`). Once all sub-elements related to the specific Party element are recorded, the batch file must include a closing tag for the element (e.g. `</Party>`).

IMPORTANT: If the batch file does not conform to the above requirements, it will fail schema validation and the entire batch submission will be rejected by FinCEN.

In this section, all sub-elements associated with the `<Party>` element are defined; however, when and when not to record each element is dependent upon the party type (e.g. Transmitter, Reporting Financial Institution, Person Involved in Transaction(s), etc.) being identified for the Party element. It is noted within each element's description which party type the element can be recorded for and under what conditions the element should be recorded within the Element Restriction(s). For a complete summary of required party elements by party type, refer to Section 3.4 – Party Elements by Party Type.

CurrencyTransactionActivityDetail Elements

The <CurrencyTransactionActivityDetail> element is the container for cash-in/out amount details (including foreign cash transactions amounts) associated with the FinCEN CTR. This element must directly follow the <TransactionDateText> element for the FinCEN CTR. Once all sub-elements related to the <CurrencyTransactionActivityDetail> element are recorded, the batch file must include a closing tag for the element (e.g. </CurrencyTransactionActivityDetail>). There must be at least one (but no more than 219) occurrence of this element for each FinCEN CTR <Activity> element recorded in the batch (see Element Restriction(s) below for clarification).

IMPORTANT: If the batch file does not conform to the above requirements, it will fail schema validation and the entire batch submission will be rejected by FinCEN.

Transmitter Party Requirements

Each FinCEN CTR in the batch file must contain one <Party> element associated with the batch file transmitter (the person or entity handling the data accumulation and formatting). To identify a party as the transmitter of the batch file, the <ActivityPartyTypeCode> element associated with the party must contain the value "35" and only the elements that apply to this party type should be recorded (see sample below).

Notes:	Two occurrences of the <PartyIdentification> element must be recorded for the transmitter party type (as displayed in the sample above) in order to identify the transmitter's Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN, type code "4") and Transmitter Control Code (TCC, type code "28").

Notes:	Two occurrences of the <PartyIdentification> element must be recorded for the transaction location party type (as displayed in the sample above) in order to identify the institution's Employer Identification Number (EIN, type code "2") and institution identification number (e.g. IARD, type code "11").

Person Involved in the Transaction(s) Party Requirements

Each FinCEN CTR in the batch file must contain at least one (but no more than 999) <Party> element associated with the person (individual or entity) involved in the transaction(s). There are four (4) types of persons that may be recorded under this party category:

Attachment A – Error Descriptions

The following table lists the errors that your batch may receive as a result of missing or invalid data formatting. FinCEN strongly encourages that filers first test their XML batch files for schema compliance using the schemas available at www.fincen.gov/base. Your batch file should pass schema validation before you attempt to submit to FinCEN. As a result, this table does not include all possible schema validation errors, as these will be handled by your XML software during testing. Your batch file must pass schema validation before attempting to submit to FinCEN via BSA E-Filing; otherwise, it will be rejected.

Error Level
Fatal Batch rejection These errors are related to the batch format and must be resolved before attempting to resubmit the batch.
Primary Batch acceptance with warning(s) classified as primary data errors These errors violate electronic filing requirements or report instructions and so degrade FinCEN CTR data quality that they must be corrected (along with warning errors) as a correction/amendment.
Warning Batch acceptance with warning(s) classified as secondary data errors. These errors that violate electronic filing requirements or report instructions but have a lesser impact on FinCEN CTR data quality.

Attachment B – Error Correction Instructions

This attachment identifies the requirements and procedures for correcting FinCEN CTR errors reported to batch filers during the FinCEN CTR acknowledgement process.

Error Categories:

There are two main categories of errors identified in batch files: Schema validation errors that result in automatic rejection of the batch file and data errors that represent errors in data entered for individual elements but may not result in a rejection. Schema validation errors prevent the batch file from being processed and are considered fatal errors. An example of a schema validation error is a missing required element or an element sequence that does not match the schema. An example of a data error is a required element that contains no value (e.g. a last name element is recorded for the person involved but no last name value is provided for the element and the last name unknown element is not indicated).

Errors that result in the acceptance of the batch file are classified as either primary errors or warning errors. Primary errors are data errors that violate electronic filing requirements or report instructions and so degrade FinCEN CTR data quality that they must be corrected. Primary errors make it difficult for regulators, analysts, and law enforcement investigators to locate the FinCEN CTRs in the database or identify the nature and circumstances of the currency transactions. Examples of such errors include blank last names or legal names, missing financial institution Employer Identification Numbers, or invalid entries in the transaction date field. Refer to Attachment A for a list of elements associated with primary errors.

Warning errors are secondary data errors that violate electronic filing requirements or report instructions but have a lesser impact on FinCEN CTR data quality. Examples of secondary errors are ZIP Codes that end in four zeros (e.g. 123450000), blank or invalid financial institution address information, or invalid telephone numbers.

Correction Requirements:

Filers should immediately correct and resubmit a batch file rejected for fatal format errors. Rejection of a batch file does not relieve the filer of the responsibility to file a FinCEN CTR within 15 days following the day on which the reportable transaction occurred.

When an accepted batch file contains FinCEN CTRs with primary errors, those FinCEN CTRs must be re-filed as corrected reports with the primary errors corrected.

If the accepted batch file contains FinCEN CTRs with both primary and warning errors, they must be re-filed as corrected reports with all errors corrected.

FinCEN CTRs that contain only warning errors need not be re-filed.

FinCEN requires that filers prevent all reported errors in their future filings.

FinCEN recommends that primary error corrections be made no later than 30 days after receiving error notifications. Furthermore, FinCEN recommends that filers remedy any systemic problems in their electronic submissions within 30 days of receiving error notifications. If technical issues prevent filers from implementing corrections within these time frames, filers should notify FinCEN by writing to:

Financial Crimes Enforcement Network
Office of Compliance
P.O. Box 39
Vienna, VA 22183

This correspondence should explain the technical issues involved that prevent meeting the time frame, provide an estimate of when the issues will be resolved, and include a contact name and telephone number.

Correction Procedures:

FinCEN CTR batch files are rejected when they contain fatal format errors or when the number of file errors exceeds limits set by the BSA E-Filing Program. In either case, filers must correct all errors identified in the batch file and resubmit the batch file to BSA E-Filing. Because they were not accepted by FinCEN, initial report FinCEN CTRs in the re-submitted batch file are still initial reports. Do not identify FinCEN CTRs from a rejected batch file as corrected reports unless they originally were filed as corrected reports.

If errors in an accepted file involve primary file errors, filers must file corrected reports on all FinCEN CTRs containing primary file errors using the following procedures:

- Make the corrections to both the primary and warning errors in all FinCEN CTRs that contains primary errors.
- Indicate that the FinCEN CTR corrects/amends a prior report under the <ActivityAssociation> element.
- Record the prior report's BSA Identifier from the FinCEN CTR acknowledgement in the <EFilingPriorDocumentNumber> element.
- Ensure that the <FilingDateText> element contains a new date.
- Complete all other data in the FinCEN CTRs in their entirety.
- Retransmit the corrected FinCEN CTR in a new batch file. Do not re-transmit the original batch file because this will cause duplicate database entries on any FinCEN CTRs that were not corrected.

FinCEN monitors FinCEN CTR filings to identify financial institutions that fail to correct primary errors in prior filings or to prevent previously-reported errors of any type in future filings. FinCEN may report such failures to a financial institution's primary federal/state regulator or BSA examiner.

Attachment C – Electronic Filing Instructions

The following instructions apply only to the electronic filing of the FinCEN Currency Transaction Report (FinCEN CTR), FinCEN 112, through FinCEN's BSA E-Filing System. Unless specifically mentioned in the text, these instructions do not apply to any other current or prior Bank Secrecy Act reports.

Filing Prohibition

The FinCEN CTR should not be filed for suspicious transactions involving $10,000 or less in currency or to note that a transaction of more than $10,000 is suspicious. Any suspicious or unusual activity should be reported by a financial institution using the FinCEN Suspicious Activity Report (FinCEN SAR), FinCEN 111. If a transaction is suspicious and in excess of $10,000 in currency, then both a FinCEN CTR and a FinCEN SAR must be filed. In situations involving suspicious transactions requiring immediate attention, such as when a reportable transaction is ongoing, the financial institution shall immediately notify, by telephone, appropriate law enforcement and regulatory authorities in addition to filing a timely FinCEN SAR.

General Instructions

1. Who must file. Each financial institution (other than the U.S. Postal Service, for which there are separate rules) must file a FinCEN CTR for each deposit, withdrawal, exchange of currency, or other payment or transfer, by, through, or to the financial institution which involves a transaction in currency of more than $10,000. Multiple transactions must be treated as a single transaction if the financial institution has knowledge that they are by or on behalf of the same person and they result in either currency received (cash in) or currency disbursed (cash out) by the financial institution totaling more than $10,000 during any one business day. For a bank, a business day is the day on which transactions are routinely posted to customers' accounts, as normally communicated to depository customers. The business day for casinos is based on the gaming day, which is the normal business day of the casino by which it keeps its books and records for business, accounting, and tax purposes. For all other financial institutions, a business day is a calendar day. Generally, financial institutions are defined as banks, other types of depository institutions, casinos and card clubs, brokers or dealers in securities, money transmitters, currency exchangers, check cashers, and issuers/sellers/payers of money orders and traveler's checks. Only those casinos, gambling casinos, or card clubs in the United States that have gross annual gaming revenues in excess of $1 million are financial institutions for purposes of the FinCEN CTR. The FinCEN CTR should not be used to report receipts of currency in excess of $10,000 by any non-gaming businesses of a casino (e.g., a hotel). Instead, such transactions should be reported on Form 8300, Report of Cash Payments Over $10,000 Received in a Trade or Business. Casinos, (gambling casinos, or card clubs) with gross annual gaming revenues that are less than $1 million are not financial institutions for purposes of the FinCEN CTR and should report all transactions in currency greater than $10,000 on Form 8300. Additional information on financial institutions required to report currency transactions is found in 31 CFR Chapter X.
2. Casino filing exceptions. A casino does not have to report transactions with:
  - Domestic banks; or
  - Currency dealers or exchangers, or check cashers, as defined in 31 C.F.R. § 1010.100(ff), and which are conducted pursuant to a contractual or other agreement covering the financial services in 31 C.F.R. 1021.311(a)(8), 1021.311(b)(7), and 1021.311(b)(8).

Also, a casino does not have to report the following types of transactions:

- Cash ins when they are the same physical currency previously wagered in a money play on the same table game without leaving the table;
- Bills inserted into electronic gaming devices in multiple transactions (unless a casino has knowledge pursuant to 31 C.F.R. 1021.313);
- Cash outs won in a money play when they are the same physical currency wagered, (However, when a customer increases a subsequent cash bet (i.e., money play), at the same table game without departing, the increase in the amount of the currency bet would represent a new bet of currency and a transaction in currency) or,

- Jackpots from slot machines or video lottery terminals.
3. Where to file. The FinCEN CTR must be filed electronically through the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) BSA E-Filing System. To obtain an application to file electronically, go to <http://bsaefiling.fincen.treas.gov/main.html>. For help in applying, contact the E-Filing Help Desk by calling 1-866-346-9478 (option 2) or via e-mail sent to BSAEFilingHelp@fincen.gov.
  4. When to file. A FinCEN CTR must be filed by the 15th calendar day after the day of the transaction as defined in General Instruction 1.
  5. Identification requirements. All individuals (except employees of an armored car service operating as an agent of the reporting financial institution) conducting reportable transactions for themselves or for another person, must be identified by means of an official document. Acceptable forms of identification include driver's license, military or military/dependent identification card, passport, state issued identification card, foreign cedula card, non-resident alien identification card, or any other identification document which contains name and preferably address and a photograph and is normally acceptable by financial institutions as a means of identification when cashing checks for persons other than established customers. Acceptable identification information obtained previously and maintained in the financial institution's records may be used. For example, if documents verifying an individual's identity were examined and recorded on a signature card when an account was opened, the financial institution may rely on that information. In completing the FinCEN CTR, the financial institution must indicate on the report the type, number, and issuer of the identification. Statements such as "known customer" or "signature card on file" are prohibited and are not sufficient for report completion. The actual identifying information must be provided.

For casino customers granted accounts for credit, deposit, or check cashing, or on whom a FinCEN CTR containing verified identity has been filed, acceptable identification information obtained previously and maintained in the casino's internal records may be used as long as the following conditions are met. The customer's identity is re-verified periodically, any out-of-date identifying information is updated in the internal records, and the date of each re-verification is noted on the internal record. For example, if documents verifying an individual's identity were examined and recorded on a signature card when a deposit or credit account was opened, the casino may rely on that information as long as it is re-verified periodically. The actual identifying information must be provided. Statements that the identifying information is on file are prohibited.

When a financial institution has through customer identification program or other requirements verified the identity of an entity involved in reported transactions, the financial Institution must record the details of that identification in Item 20 "Form of identification used to verify identity." Such identification can involve collection and retention of documents such as articles of incorporation, business licenses, partnership agreements, or trust documents, and may also involve non-documentary verifications such as site visits, armored car serial numbers or Department of Transportation registration numbers, and private verification services.
  6. Penalties. Civil and criminal penalties are provided for failure to file a FinCEN CTR or to supply information, or for filing a false or fraudulent FinCEN CTR. See 31 U.S.C. 5321, 5322 and 5324.
  7. Definitions. For purposes of this FinCEN CTR, the terms below have the following meanings:
    - ATM – An electronic telecommunications device that enables the customers of a financial institution to perform financial transactions, particularly cash deposits or withdrawals, without the need for a human cashier, clerk or bank teller. Cash transactions conducted at an ATM are reportable by the owner of the ATM.
    - Branch – A transaction location (such as an office or ATM) owned or operated by a financial institution through which the currency transaction was conducted and operated independently from the financial institution's headquarters.
    - Currency - The coin and paper money of the United States or any other country, which is circulated and customarily used and accepted as money.

- Person - An individual, corporation, partnership, trust or estate, joint stock company, association, syndicate, joint venture or other unincorporated organization or group.
- Entity - Person other than an individual.
- Shared branching – A transaction conducted by a financial institution on behalf of another financial institution that are both a member of a co-operative network (this option applies only to credit unions that are members of a cooperative).

Note: The following definition is provided as an example/aid for non-depository institutions subject to FinCEN CTR filing requirements.

- Teller - a non-industry-specific term that refers to an employee that conducts in-person cash transactions with customers, account holders or third parties on behalf of the financial institution. This definition does not apply to "back office" or vault managers/personnel. Different industries may have different terms of art to describe this function for example, within the casino/card club industry the person performing a teller-like function may be referred to as a cashier, cage operator, floor manager, or pit boss. In the MSB industry, the teller-like function may be referred to as a cashier, customer service representative, store/branch manager, clerk etc.
- Transaction in Currency - The physical transfer of currency from one person to another. This does not include a transfer of funds by means of bank check, bank draft, wire transfer or other written order that does not involve the physical transfer of currency.
- Negotiable Instruments - All checks and drafts (including business, personal, bank, cashier's and third-party), money orders, and promissory notes. For purposes of this FinCEN CTR, all traveler's checks shall also be considered negotiable instruments whether or not they are in bearer form.
- Exchange rate - The amount of a foreign currency that can be exchanged for a U.S. Dollar. If foreign currency is a part of a currency transaction that requires the completion of a FinCEN CTR, use the exchange rate in effect for the business day of the transaction to compute the amount, in U.S. Dollars, to enter in Items 26 and 28. The source of the exchange rate that is used will be determined by the reporting institution.

- 8. Recording information. Complete each FinCEN CTR by providing as much information as possible. Although all items should be completed fully and accurately, items marked with an asterisk (*) must be completed. Filers must follow the instructions for these items by providing the required data or, if instructions permit, by checking the box labeled "Unknown" to indicate that the required data was unknown or not applicable. Items that do not begin with an asterisk must be completed if the data are known and will be left blank if the data are unknown. If an item's instructions differ from this general instruction, the item instructions must be followed. Items without an asterisk must be completed if the filer has the data and will be left blank when such data are unknown. This instruction supersedes all prior instructions or guidelines issued by FinCEN on use of special responses in BSA forms when information is unknown or not available. Therefore, the use in a FINCEN CTR of special responses such as "UNKNOWN," "NONE," "NOT APPLICABLE," or "XX" and their variants is prohibited. Instructions for any previous version of the Currency Transaction Report do not apply to the FinCEN CTR.

NOTE: Throughout these instructions the phrases "check box," "select option," and similar wording are used to denote actions in certain data items on the discrete FinCEN CTR. These are deemed equivalent to instructions in the Electronic Filing Requirements to enter appropriate codes in the same data items in XML-format transmission files.

- 9. Corrected or amended reports. A corrected report must be filed whenever errors are discovered in a previously-filed FinCEN CTR. Amended reports on FinCEN CTRs must be filed whenever additional data about the transactions are discovered. Both corrected and amended reports must be completed in their entirety, with the necessary corrections or amendments made to the data. In both cases box 1b "Correct/amend prior report" must be checked on the FinCEN CTR. Field 1d must contain the BSA Identifier (BSA ID) assigned to the prior filing. If the BSA ID is unknown, enter all zeros in this field. If the FinCEN CTR corrects or amends a FinCEN CTR field not present or completed on the prior filing that field must be completed by the filer if the data are known. These instructions supersede all prior instructions and guidance on electronic filing of amended or corrected FinCEN CTRs. BSA IDs are provided in acknowledgement records sent to member financial institutions by the BSA E-Filing

System.

10. Addresses. For addresses in the U.S., Canada, or Mexico enter the permanent street address, city, two or three letter state/territory/province abbreviation or code, ZIP Code or foreign postal code, and two-letter country code. Provide the apartment number or suite number, if known, following the street address. A non-location address such as a post office box or rural route number should be used only if no other street address information is available. ZIP Codes must be five or nine digits. ZIP Codes and foreign postal codes must be entered without formatting or special characters such as spaces or hyphens. For example, the ZIP Code 12345-6120 would be entered as 123456120. The foreign postal code HKW 702 would be entered HKW702. When an address is in a U.S. Territory the territory code must be entered in the state and country fields. For other foreign addresses enter the street address, city, postal code, and two letter country code or address equivalents. Leave the state item blank, including the "Unknown box" when provided. If a foreign address contains address information that does not conform to the FinCEN CTR address format, record equivalent address information in the FinCEN CTR address items (except state) and ignore non-conforming data. Complete any address item that is known, even if the entire address is not known. No abbreviations are permitted in city names, which must be completely spelled out. A U.S. city name must match the city name used by the U.S. Postal Service for the associated state and ZIP Code. U.S. State and Territory codes must conform to the codes used by the United States Postal Service as documented in ISO 3166-2:US. Canadian province and territory codes must conform to the codes used by the Canadian Post Corporation as documented in ISO 3166-2:CA. Mexican state and federal district codes must conform to ISO 3166-2:MX. Country codes and U.S. Territory Codes must conform to the codes documented in ISO 3166-2. The ISO lists are available through the International Standards Organization.
11. Telephone numbers. Record all telephone numbers, both foreign and domestic, as a single number string without formatting or special characters such as parentheses, spaces, or hyphens. For example, a number in the format (NNN) NNN-NNNN would be recorded as NNNNNNNNNN. If known, provide the telephone extension number in the associated field. Telephone numbers that are part of the North American Numbering Plan used by the U.S., Canada, many Caribbean countries, and present/former U.S. Pacific island protectorates must be a 10-number entry consisting only of an area code and seven-digit telephone number. Other foreign telephone numbers should include the country number code. If only a partial telephone number is known, record that number in the phone number item.
12. Identifying numbers. Enter all identifying numbers as a single alpha/numeric text string without formatting such as spaces or special characters such as hyphens or periods. An identifying number in the format NNN-NN-NNNN would be entered as NNNNNNNNNN. Such numbers may include letter and number characters. Common identifying numbers include account numbers, alien registration numbers, driver's license and state identification numbers, Employer Identification Numbers (EIN), passport numbers, Social Security Numbers (SSN), and industry specific identifiers such as National Futures Association (NFA) numbers and Central Registration Depository (CRD) numbers. Do not include characters that are not part of the actual identifying number. For example, account number entries must consist only of the account number numeric characters as recorded on checks, account statements, credit bureau reports, etc. Additional characters such as special characters, leading zeros, prefixes, and suffixes appended to account numbers for internal financial institution purposes are prohibited.
13. Monetary amounts. Record all U.S. Dollar amounts rounded up to the next whole dollar. The amount $15,265.25 would be recorded as $15,266. A foreign currency amount can only be recorded in Item 26 "Foreign cash in" or Item 28 "Foreign cash out," again rounded up to the next whole amount. When converting a foreign currency to dollars use an exchange rate for the date of the transaction.
14. Determining whether transactions meet the reporting threshold. Only cash transactions that, if alone or when aggregated, exceed $10,000 should be reported on the FinCEN CTR. Transactions shall not be offset against one another. A corrected FinCEN CTR can be filed on an amount below the reporting threshold in cases where the prior FinCEN CTR's total cash in or total cash out was incorrect and the actual amount was below the threshold. A filer can use the discrete FinCEN CTR if the filer's batch-file reporting system will not allow such a corrected report to be filed. If there are both Cash In and Cash Out transactions that are reportable, the amounts should be considered separately and not aggregated. However, they may be reported on a single FinCEN CTR. If there is a currency exchange, it should be aggregated separately with each of the cash in and cash out totals.

Example 1: A person deposits $11,000 in currency to his savings account and withdraws $3,000 in currency from his checking account. The FinCEN CTR should be completed as follows:

Item 25 "Total cash in" is $11,000, with no entry in Item 27 "Total cash out." This is because the $3,000 transaction does not meet the reporting threshold.

Example 2: A person deposits $11,000 in currency to his savings account and withdraws $12,000 in currency from his checking account. The FinCEN CTR should be completed as follows:

Item 25 "Total cash in" is $11,000. Item 27 "Total cash out" is $12,000. This is because there are two reportable transactions. However, one FinCEN CTR may be filed to reflect both.

Example 3: A person deposits $6,000 in currency to his savings account and withdraws $4,000 in currency from his checking account. Further, he presents $5,000 in currency to be exchanged for the equivalent in Euro's. The FinCEN CTR should be completed as follows:

Item 25 "Total cash in" is $11,000, with no entry in Item 27 "Total cash out." This is because in determining whether the transactions are reportable, the currency exchange is aggregated with each of the Cash In and Cash Out amounts. The result is a reportable $11,000 cash in transaction. The total cash out amount is $9,000, which does not meet the reporting threshold. Therefore, the cash out amount is not entered on the FinCEN CTR.

Example 4: A person deposits $6,000 in currency to his savings account and withdraws $7,000 in currency from his checking account. Further, he presents $5,000 in currency to be exchanged for the equivalent in Euros. The FinCEN CTR should be completed as follows:

Item 25 "Total cash in" is $11,000. Item 27 "Total cash out" is $12,000. This is because in determining whether the transactions are reportable, the currency exchange is aggregated with each of the Cash In and Cash Out amounts. In this example, each of the Cash In and Cash Out totals exceeds $10,000 and must be reflected on the FinCEN CTR. The amount of Euros received in the currency exchange would be entered in Item 28 Foreign Cash Out.

15. Prohibited words and phrases. Do not use the following words or variations of these words in fields:

- AKA
- COMPUTER GENERATED
- CUSTOMER
- DBA
- NONE
- NOT APPLICABLE
- NON CUSTOMER
- OTHER
- SAME
- SAME AS ABOVE
- SEE ABOVE
- SIGNATURE CARD
- UNKNOWN
- VARIOUS
- XX

16. Name Editing Instructions. Because many names do not consist of a single first name, middle name, and last name, care must be taken to ensure these names are entered properly in the FinCEN CTR. This is especially important when there are separate fields for the last name, first name, and middle name. Some names have multiple surnames (family names) or multiple given names that do not include a middle name. Others may not be written in [first name] [middle name] [last name] order. Multiple surnames must be entered in the last name field.

For example, Hispanic names may be written in the order of given name, father's last name, and mother's last name, e.g., "Juan Vega Santiago." Thus the surname "VEGA SANTIAGO" would be entered in the last name field with "JUAN" entered in the first name field. Some Hispanic surnames consist of three names (e.g., father's last name, mother's last name, and husband's father's last name in the case of a married woman). In that case all three would be entered in a last name field. Hispanic names do not have middle names, so a multiple Hispanic given name such as "Rosa Maria" would be recorded in the first name field. In some cultures names consist of multiple first names and a single family name, not necessarily in (first name) (last name) order. For example, the Korean name "Kim, Chun Nam" consists of the family name "Kim" and the first name "Chun Nam" separated by a comma and space. There is no middle name. In this case "KIM" would be entered in the last name field and "CHUN NAM" would be entered in the first name field. Nothing is entered in the middle name field. When an individual name is entered in a single name field it should be entered in [first name] [middle name] [last name] order regardless of any foreign naming conventions. Thus, "Kim, Chun Nam" would be entered as "CHUN NAM KIM" in a single name field. Punctuation and special characters should be used in names only when they are part of the name. For example, the period in "Expedia.Com" should be included because it is part of the name. Placing a period after a middle initial would be prohibited because the period is not part of the middle name. Abbreviations in names are prohibited unless an abbreviation is part of a legal name. Entry of middle initials is permitted when a middle name is unknown. A name suffix may be abbreviated, i.e. Junior can be JR, Senior can be SR, the Third can be III, etc.

Item Instructions

NOTE: Critical fields in the FinCEN CTR are identified with the * symbol in front of the data element number.

Critical fields must be completed by the filer, either by providing the requested data or by checking the "Unknown" box when that option is available. Non-critical fields must be completed when the filer has the data and will be left blank when the data are unknown or do not apply. For example, Item *1 "Type of filing" is a critical field that always requires entry of the requested data because it has no "Unknown" option. Item *4 "Individual's last name or entity's legal name" is a critical field that always requires an entry, either by entering the name when known or checking the unknown box when the name is not known. Item 7 "Gender" is a non-critical field that requires an entry when the person is an individual because the options are "Male," "Female," or "Unknown." But Item 7 is left blank when the person is an entity because entities do not have a gender and Item 7 would not apply.

*1. Type of filing (check box that applies):

- a. Initial report
- b. Correct/amend prior report
- c. FinCEN directed Back filing
- d. Prior report BSA Identifier

Item *1 Type of filing: Check box 1a "Initial report" if this is the first report filed on the currency transaction(s). FinCEN CTRs filed as a result of a historical or other review of past transactional activity, either directed by a regulating authority other than FinCEN or on the financial institution's own initiative, must always be identified as initial reports. Check box 1b "Correct/amend prior report" if the report corrects or amends a previously-filed FinCEN CTR. See General Instruction 9 for additional instructions on filing corrected or amended CTRs. Check box 1c "FinCEN directed Back filing" if FinCEN directed the financial institution to file the FinCEN CTR on a currency transaction or transactions not previously reported. If box 1b is checked, the prior report's BSA Identifier (BSA ID) must be recorded in field 1d. Enter all zeros if the prior report BSA ID is unknown, for example when the prior report was a paper filing.

Part II Amount and Type of Transaction(s)

NOTE: There will be one Part II for each FinCEN CTR filed.

Critical fields, denoted by an asterisk (*) in front of the item number, must be completed by providing the data associated with that item. Critical fields must be completed by the filer, either by providing the requested data or by checking the "Unknown" box when that option is available.

Complete the Part II section by recording all details concerning the currency transaction. Such details include transaction date, types of transactions, transaction amounts including total cash in and/or total cash out, and information about any foreign currencies involved in the transactions. All items must be completed when known but will be left blank when data are unknown or do not apply.

*23. Date of transaction

Item *23 Date of transaction: Enter the date of the transaction(s) in Item 23. Batch filers will use the format YYYY/MM/DD format where YYYY = year, MM = month, DD = day. The format YYYY/MM/DD must be used in Item 23 on the BSA E-Filing discrete FinCEN CTR. Any single digit month or day must be preceded by a zero.

24. Delivery/Payment method involved (Check all that apply)

- a. Armored car (FI contract)
- b. ATM
- c. Mail Deposit or Shipment
- d. Night Deposit

Item 24: Indicate whether any of the following delivery/payment methods were involved in any part of the transaction(s). Check all that apply. Check box 24a "Armored Car" if a reported transaction involved a pick-up or delivery of currency by an armored car service under contract to the financial institution listed in Part III or the filing institution listed in Part IV. Do not check box 24a if the armored car service was under contract to a person recorded in Part I. Check box 24b "ATM" if a reported transaction occurred at an automated teller machine (ATM). Check box 24c "Mail Deposit or Shipment" if a reported transaction was made by mail deposit or shipment. Check box 24d "Night Deposit" if a reported transaction involved a night deposit of cash. Check box 24e "Aggregated transactions" if the financial institution did not identify any transactor(s) because the FinCEN CTR reports aggregated transactions all below the reporting requirement with at least one transaction a teller transaction. The option "Aggregated transactions" is not the same as Item 3 "Multiple transactions," which can involve transactions that are above the reporting requirement where a transactor is known and may involve transactions none of which were teller transactions. Check box 24f "Shared branching" if the transaction was conducted on behalf of another financial institution that is a member of a co-operative network (this option applies only to credit unions that are members of a cooperative).
